

INSIGHT3
Professional Numismatic Services

Jeffrey R. Paunicka

P.O. Box 683
Portage, IN 46368

574.315.0238
money@oldbucks.com
www.oldbucks.com

“United States Paper Money Types and History” Outline

This graphical presentation will cover the beauty and wide assortments of paper currency used within the United State of America since its inception in the 1700’s. It will include topics of the historical references, economic conditions, monetary backing and the methodology of distribution of currency. It will also include the technical issues that are of importance to collectors and those who are interested in the background of how these notes came to be utilized in the world of commerce for more than 250 years. These discussions are meant to support and provide guidance to all collectors in establishing a good foundation to proudly create a portfolio that best represents Americana.

Introduction
Colonial Currency
First Banks & Coins
Obsolete Currency
Civil War
Fractional Currency
Confederate Currency & Bonds
Union Paper Money Value Fluctuations
Demand Notes
Legal Tender Notes
Treasury Seal Design
Gold Certificates
United States Secret Service
National Bank Notes
Bureau of Engraving and Printing
Silver Certificates
1910 Currency Production Consolidated
1913 Federal Reserve Act
Federal Reserve District Banks
Federal Reserve Notes

Federal Reserve Bank Controversy
Federal Reserve Bank Notes
1928 Paper Money Resizing
Standardization - Portraits & Designs
WWII Emergency Currency
Hawaii Currency
North Africa Currency
In God We Trust
1990 Micro Printing
1990 Security Threads
Star Notes
Paper Money Longevity
Expert Perspectives
Collecting Vs Accumulation
Collecting Coins Vs Paper Money
Valuation
Decline in Varieties
Reference Material
Credits & Acknowledgments

Jeffrey R. Paunicka
Owner - Presenter

