GRADING U.S. COINS

Macomb Community College Sports & Expo Center, 14500 East 12 Mile, Warren, MI (Building P)

Sponsored by MSNS

Saturday, November 28, 2015 9am-Noon

FEATURING:

Instructor Steve Roach (pictured): former editor-in-chief and current editor-at-large of Coin World, former grader at ANACS and Heritage Auctions, co-instructor at ANA Summer Seminar.

Instructor Tony Cass: dealer, former grader at ANACS.

Description: During the 3 hour class students will participate in 45 minutes of discussion on the general concepts of grading and then grade two groups of coins in conditions similar to those used in third-party grading services. After each group, we go coin-by-coin and discuss the results, explaining why PCGS/NGC/ANACS graded the coins as they did. The coins come from Tony's inventory and my collection, and are selected for their potential teaching lessons with some exciting rarities thrown in. The goals are for students to get an understanding of grading, how grading services work, a basic understanding of what "problem" coins are (and how the definition is fluid) and some pointers on how professional graders work. Also, we aim for the class to be very fun and we will stay through the convention to help connect with students.

Every Student Receives: Coin World "Making The Grade" book.

Non-MSNS-Members also Receive: 1 Year MSNS Membership
